OUTLINES.

Col. and Mrs. Wm. J. Bryan arrived in London yesterday, and in a dictated statement to newspaper men he says he is not willing yet to say that he is a candidate for President.——Cholera of a virulent type has broken out in Manila and surrounding provinces, and three deaths have occurred among United States soldiers.——In Warsaw, Russia, yesterday three more policemen were added to the long list of policemen killed under the plan of the terrorists.——Action is to be taken against the ice manufacturers and dealers in Washington for conspiracy to create an ice famine in order to put up prices.——At Beattyville, Ky., yesterday at the trial of former Judge Hargis and Sheriff Callahan, for murder, Asbury Spicer confessed and implicated them in the assassination of James B. Marcum and Jim Cockrill. ——An action is to be commenced to revoke the charter of the French Lick Springs Hotel, in Indianapolis, on the charge of gambling; Democratic National Chairman Tom Taggart is president of the company.——Chairman Macara, of the Committee of the International Spinners and Manufacturers' Association, thinks the recent Berlin cotton congress has struck a plan to steady prices for cotton.——Harry Thaw's chorus girl wife will testify at his trial in New York and says she will gladly tell all about the cause of the tragedy; she says she was married to Thaw in Europe previous to the marriage ceremony at Pittsburg; the mother of Harry Thaw, who was at sea when the killing of Stanford White occurred, had the news broken to her when she landed in England yesterday.——President Roosevelt will deliver a Fourth of July address at Oyster Bay to-day.——New York Markets: Money on call strong, 2½ to 7 per cent., ruling rate 6, closing bid 2½, offered at 3; spot cotton quiet, 10.80; flour quiet and lower; wheat steady, No. 2 red 5-8 elevator; corn barely steady, No. 2 59½ elevator; oats steady, mixed 43 to 43½; turpentine firm, 60 to 60½; rosin firm.

Who is going to inspect the meat inspectors?

There's neither happiness nor money in going the gait.

Many people live in the same square but they don't move in the same circle.

Good women have the satisfaction of knowing that men do not kill each other about them.

Atlanta had to get into the Thaw-White tragedy in New York by claiming that an Atlanta man was feeding in the Cafe Martin.

A Northern paper says there is now a disposition among municipal authorities to arrest millionaires on small provocation. We wouldn't mind dodging the policeman on those terms.

A Philadelphian is to manufacture flying machines and put them on the market at $1,000 each. Still, the high flyers among men won't have enough money left to blow it in on an air ship.

Surprise is expressed that the Democrats have nominated a ticket in New Hampshire. Thev'e got just as much right as North Carolina Republicans to imagine that they have a showing.

The Charlotte Observer says quite a number of Charlotte people will go to Salisbury "to observe the Fourth." As Charlotte's dry and Salisbury's not, it looks like "celebrate" is the word to use instead of "observe."

The Charlotte Chronicle remarks: "The people on Wrightsville Beach had no better sea breeze than prevailed in Charlotte to-day. The only difference was ours had no salt in it." Yes, and that's what spoiled the whole thing.

DAYS IN CAMP GLENN

GREAT TIME THEY'RE HAVING

The Hours Amended—Some Personal Experiences of Members of the Command—Many Visitors Expected on the Glorious Fourth

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Camp Glenn, Southport, N. C., July 3.—The guard detail for to-day was composed of the following: Officer of the day, Capt. Loughlin; Sergeant of the Guard, First Sergeant Russ; Corporal of the Guard, Corporal Muse.

Special Order No. 1, amending the hours was issued to-day by Acting Adjutant Muse, by order of Col. Taylor, commanding; Reville is 6:15 A. M., Assembly 6:45; Mess, 7:00; Morning drill, 8:00; Recall, 8:45; Religious exercises, 9 P. M.; Mess 12 noon; Afternoon drill 4:00 P. M.; Dress parade, 6:30 P. M.; Mess, 7:00; Tattoo, 9:00; Taps, 10:00 P. M.

Privates H. A. Kure, Jr., and E. McRenolds arrived in camp to-day for the remaining days of the encampment.

This morning early while everyone was snoring, a deep lusty snore, reminding the guards on duty of the sweet music "dischorded" by Wilmington's famous Dock Street Band, a loud piercing nerve-racking shriek, resembling a siren whistle, penetrated the stillness of the night, which, upon investigation, was found to have originated in the tent occupied by Walter Benson, who, imagining that some miscreant wished to swipe his Ingersoll dollar watch, decided to arouse the entire camp (but unwittingly half of Southport was also aroused), and when Leon Jewell, with hair standing on end, discovered the intruders to be a drove of long and lanky Brunswick county razor backs, quietness followed chaos and Tilley and "Buggs" reaumed their snoring.

All friends of the Brigade are invited to the camp on the Fourth, but notice is hereby given that meal hours will be subject to change without notice. Meals will probably be served immediately after the arrival of the boat, in order that the friends accepting this invitation may be relieved of their pies, cakes, cigars, ice cream and other delicacies wtihout undue difficulty.

Dancing at Southport's elegant terpischorean parlor was to have been the chief event this evening, but suddenly and unexpectedly there appeared upon the scene four gallant young and handsome troubadours, known to the denizens of "Dry Pond" as "Cheese," "Bud," 'Ice Cream Face" and "Shaggy," but more generally known as the Acme Male Quartette, who immediately proceeded to emit hot air from their faces, after which it was "all over," much to the disappointment of the light foot artists, Col. Taylor, "Geekay" Young, "Buggs" Dushan, Sr., and "Boufarah" Wingo, who had intended in a round way to do a square dance.

Due to the strength of the tea (?), the weight of the pudding and the toughness of the steak served by Commissary Sergeant Tilley, a tremendous case of indigestion was developed in the person of Guard Grover Cleveland, David B. Hill, etc., which resulted in the appearance of a swarm of rattlesnakes, caused him to make a mad rush to the tent of the corporal of the guard, where, falling down in the presence of this important official, is a frenzy of terror and agony, he declared that he had been bitten by one of these frightful monsters and must die within the hour. The corporal, arming himself in the strength of his authority and incased in the armor of his undress uniform, immediately proceeding to the scene of danger, discovered that the huge monsters spoken of by Guard Hill proved to be but a bunch of stinging nettle, against which this brave young man had brushed during the course of his somnambulistic ramblings. In the future water will be served with each glass of tea, baking powder with the pudding, and sharp knives for the steak by which it is hoped that in future their will be no repetition of this fearful experience. SCOTT'S STATEMENT FROM THE SCAFFOLD

Delivered to Legal and Spiritual Advisers Yesterday Under Pledge of Secrecy Until Final Day. Mr. Bellamy Gone North.

A signed and sworn statement, given under seal to be read only on the gallows and purporting to be his last utterance in regard to the now famous Berwind mutiny case, was issued yesterday by Henry Scott, who will pay the death penalty for his part in the terrible tragedy, in the county jail here, day after to-morrow. But three men in the world know the contents of the letter. They are the prisoner himself, who wrote the statement in his own hand, declining the services of a stenographer sworn to secrecy; William J. Bellamy, Esq., the prisoner's legal adviser, and the Rev. E. R. Bennett, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church, colored, who from the first has been Scott's spiritual adviser. The two last named are pledged to secrecy and Scott himself will not give the least intimation as to the nature of the communication, which he says will be the last until he is ushered into eternity.

There were wild reports yesterday that the letter was a complete confession, exonerating Adams and Sawyer, the two other men sentenced to die in August for their part in the same terrible tragedy, but those in a positon to state as to the contents of the letter, under solemn pledge to secrecy, refuse to deny or confirm any of the rumors that are afloat. Rev. Bennett gave the only intimation as to the bearing of the letter upon the case of the other two negroes. He said that he could not speak of anything in connection with the statement, but suffice it to say that "The Truth Will Prevail." This was construed by many to mean that Scott had exonerated Adams and Sawyer but the minister refused to say absolutely anything about it. This remains to be seen.

The statement was given out yesterday morning at 11 o'clock in the jail. There were present at the time Mr. Bellamy, Rev. E. R. Bennett and another colored minister, Mr. George Rountree, counsel for Adams and Sawyer; United States Commissioner and Court Clerk S. P. Collier and Justice G. W. Bornemann. Scott exhibited some eight or ten closely written pages on foolscap paper and stated that it was his last and only and a truthful statement of all he knew in connection with the murder and mutiny on board the ship and that under no consideration would he consent for the contents of it to become known until he was on the scaffold and ready to be ushered into eternity except to Rev. Bennett, who had remained faithful to him until the end, and to Mr. Bellamy, who had fought so valiantly for him in the courts. The letter was addressed to these two and they retired to read its contents. Upon completing this highly interesting mission, the two returned to the jail office into which Scott had been brought in charge of Jailer Ed. Capps and the prisoner was sworn by both U. S. Commissioner Collier and Justice of the Peace Bornemann as to the truthfulness of the contents of the communication and as to his signature affixed thereto. The statement was then delivered to Mr. Bellamy with instructions for him to safely keep until the day of execution when Scott requested that it be read from the scaffold as his last utterance on earth in regard to the celebrated case. Mr. Bellamy placed the letter in an envelope and would not talk of the matter in any light after leaving the jail, all in the enclosure at the time of the delivery of the letter being pledged to the utmost secrecy in re-

HIS MEMORY HONORED

Distinguished honors were yesterday morning paid by the Veterans and Masons of this city to the memory of their late comrade, Dr. Elisha Porter, of Rocky Point, whose remains were brought to Wilmington and interred in beautiful Oakdale Cemetery, after very impressive services from St. Andrew's Presbyterian church at which the pastor, the Rev. A. D. McClure D. D., officiated.

The remains of the distinguished Eastern Carolinian were accompanied to Wilmington by the bereaved widow and son, Dr. E. Pender Porter, of New York, and a large number of friends from the Rocky Point section. Cape Fear Camp of Veterans and the Third North Carolina Infantry Association, of both of which organizations Dr. Porter was a valued member, had assembled at the station upon the arrival of the morning train, and were present in uniform to act as an honorary escort to the final resting place of their comrade. There were also present a large delegation from the Masonic fraternity and all joined reverently in paying all due honor to the deceased. In the party at the station were also a large number of personal friends of Dr. Porter, who followed the solemn procession to the church and later to the cemetery.

During the course of the funeral services Dr. McClure paid a fine tribute to the life and character of his friend and fellow soldier and the music by the special choir composed of Miss Maude Bulluck, Mrs. F. A. Muse, Mr. C. E. Vale and Mr. A. S. Holden, with Miss Chasten as organist, was especially sweet. A large number of beautiful floral tributes were laid on the casket by friends.

The services at the grave were with the honors of the Masonic fraternity and were very impressive. The pall-bearers were: Honorary, Col. John L. Cantwell and Capt. James I. Metts; active, Mr. Jesse Wilder, Rev. J. A. Smith, Capt. W. P. Oldham, Capt. R. W. Price, Dr. W D McMillan and Dr. J. E. Matthews.

Dr. Porter was held in the highest esteem by the old soldiers for his daring and gallantry in action. He served throughout most of the war as lieutenant but was later issued a commission as captain, proving himself a leader in deeds as well as in words.

STATE CONVENTION

(By Associated Press.)

Greensboro, N. C., July 3.—The North Carolina Democratic State Convention met here to-day with about 300 delegates in attendance.

The only State officers to be nominated was Chairman of the Corporation Commission and Franklin McNeill, the present incumbent was nominated by a large majority on the first ballot.

William J. Bryan was endorsed for President and former Governor Charles B. Aycock, of this State, for vice president.

The introduction of the resolution caused a discussion that at times verged on bitterness and a roll call was demanded. The motion was, however, adopted by a decisive majority.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Greensboro, N. C., July 3.—Chairman Simmons called Convention to order at 12:10 o'clock to-day in the Opera House and announced the appointment of Locke Craig temporary chairman. Chairman Craig made an able speech closing with a tribute to Bryan which provoked prolonged cheering. The roll of districts was then called for reports as to members of the committees.

Members of Executive Committee for Sixth District, W. H. Bernard, E. F. McCulloch, R. H. Powell, Geo. H. Bellamy.

Vice President from Sixth district, R. G. Taylor.

The Committee on platform and resolutions was composed of W. G. Lamb, F. A. Woodard, C. E. Foy, F. M. Simmons, R. L. Holt, S. K. Nimocks, D. E. McIver, R. A. Doughton, R. L. Durham, J. P. Kerr.

Sixth district member of Credentials Committee was R. S. Barnes; of permanent organization, Geo. H. Bellamy. The convention at 1:30 adjourned till 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

At the afternoon session Franklin McNeill,, was renominated for Corporation Commissioner, by the following vote: McNeill, 521; Long, 179; Middleton, 71.

Ex-Gov, C. B. Aycock was made permanent chairman. A letter from Governor Glenn was read. The Governor congratulated the convention upon the prosperous and peaceful condition of the State. He recommended several matters of State policy to be put in the platform.

A resolution was adopted pledging

A GLORIOUS FOURTH

THOUSANDS WILL ATTEND

Great National Holiday Will Call Many to Beaches and Other Resorts—Some of the Features of Attraction.

"General Exodus" will be in command of the forces at Wilmington today. It is the fourth of July, a legal and a National holiday. Wilmington is "great" on celebrations and the whole town will turn out upon this occasion. While there will be no special celebration in the city, there will be a general suspension of business and the people, large and small, will betake themselves to the several resorts bereabouts where elaborate programmes have been prepared in celebration of the "Glorious." The transportation people have put their best to the front to take care of the crowds and if the weather be good there will be few people left in the city to look after things at home.

The celebration this year is confined to no particular place and "Where're you going to spend the fourth?" has been a puzzling one for a great many. There will be special attractions at Carolina and Wrightsville beaches, an elaborate celebration at Southport and Fort Caswell and the usual annual outing at Lake Waccamaw for which the Atlantic Coast Line will operate a special train leaving this morning at 8 o'clock and leaving the Lake for the return at the same hour this evening. This trip has been very popular in the past and will no doubt be so this year again.

At Wrightsville Beach.

The leading feature of interest for a great many at Wrightsville Beach to-day will be the annual Fourth of July regatta by the Carolina Yacht Club fleet. A large number of favorites have been entered for the race and a great deal of interest is being manifested. Then, too, at Lumina, that popular resort of the people there has been provided a special line of amusement. The orchestra will play morning, afternoon and night and there will be dancing all day in the fine pavilion there. The Lumina resaurant is now in operation in charge of Mrs. Mayo and patrons are highly pleased with the excellent service. In order to handle the large crowds expected a train of three cars will be operated every half hour during the day and at night and the management propose to avoid crowding in every way possible.

At Carolina Beach.

The steamer Wilmington will make three trips to Carolina Beach and Southport during the day, the hours of departure from the city being 9 A. M., 2:30 and 7 P. M. At the beach there will be music all day in the pavilion for dancing, bowling, bathing and fine shooting on the new traps. The roller skating rink will also be in full operation and this will prove an interesting diversion for all. The fare to either Southport or Carolina Beach is only 25 cents for the round trip.

The Day at Southport.

Southport and Fort Caswell have a joint celebration this year and the most elaborate of them all. The whole town enters into the spirit of the occasion and the visitor is given a cordial welcome. There will be a series of field athletics and aquatic sports. The sail and motor boat races will be a special feature and have been postponed until afternoon at the request of many Wilmington people who will attend. The presence of the Boys' Brigade in camp there will be a strong card for the lower Cape Fear celebration and the boys will enter heartily into the sports. Another feature will be the privilege of visiting Fort Caswell and hearing the National salutes from the big guns. All the secret orders of the town will keep open house all day and will be pleased to see their friends of the Wilmington lodges down for the day. Southport may be reached either by the steamer Wilmington on the schedule above given or by the Sea Gate leaving the city at 8:30 A. M. and 2 P. M., returning leave Southport at 7 and 11 P. M. The fare on either boat is only 25 cents the round trip.

Day in the City.

The day in the city will be featured by a game of baseball this afternoon at Hilton between a picked team of college players and the Market Street Giants of the City League, and a shoot by the Wilmington Gun Club on the Delgado traps. Both of these will be largely attended by many who will take the morning at one of the resorts and return home in the afternoon.

DIFFERENT KINDS OF ROBBERY.

Highway robbery is a small crime alongside some of the methods used in the commercial world. The low state of morals existing among some men who make their millions is illustrated in a statement of the method by which John W. Gates some ten days ago squeezed the Steel Trust for piles of money by running down its stock in the market. The Star published the dispatch concerning a cut in the price of Southern iron but the significance of the matter was not stated and no doubt was only known to Gates and his associate operators.

The Boston Commercial calls attention to the significance of the cut in iron, and strangely enough, what has been quite generally overlooked was the report contained in the financial columns of the daily papers last week that John W. Gates and his associates, who control the Tennessee Coal & Iron Company and the Republic Steel Company, has incited a price cutting war between both concerns in order to assist their bear attack against the shares of the United States Steel Corporation. The decline of 50 cents per ton in the price of southern foundry iron worked so well that Steel common stock dropped to 36 1-2, which is the lowest price it has touched during the present year. Naturally there was great jubilation in the bear crowd, and it was complacently pointed out that if the Gates interests had really cut Southern foundry iron prices with a view to smashing the market, the loss on the iron sales at cut prices must have been much more than compensated by the profits from short selling.

Possibly this report may have contained as much surmise as fact, but the fact that it was received with a great deal of credence in many circles indicates that it would not be unusual if the coup in question had been adopted. At the present time some of the principal iron concerns of the South are controlled by Wall street people, who draw no small part of their annual profits from stock speculation, and it is a matter of general knowledge that these people on several occasions in the past have manipulated the pig iron market for speculative purposes, pure and simple.

In stock market circles, however, such methods have met with little, if any condemnation. On the contrary, a great many people appear to regard these methods as perfectly legitimate for the purpose in view. What if the business equilibrium of the country is disturbed? What if the disturbance does spread to other industries and thus begin to undermine the prosperity of the country? All this is merely incidental to the campaign of the stock jobber.

What can be said of the conscience and morals of men who take such advantage of each other on a large scale? With the view that it is all merely incidental to the campaign of the stock jobber, the great mass of people will not agree. Such speculation degenerates into rank vice, and the method of the highwayman is decent and mild compared to the Gates method. It must be remembered also that such jobbery affects not only the iron manufacturers and the stock market but the consumers, as they have to pay higher prices when the market goes up, as the cut is all off before it gets down to the consumer.

COTTON MILL WAGES ADVANCED.

It will be interesting to the cotton growing belt to learn that the managers of the cotton mills of New England are quite generally making an advance of 5 to 10 per cent. in the wages of their employes. This advance applies mainly to such mills as during the time of depression in 1904 cut down wages, and since then had partially restored the original reduction of 12 1-2 per cent. The Boston Commercial Bulletin says of the increase:

"It is gratifying to note that this advance is being secured without either side resorting to any protracted or extreme efforts. There were arguments and consultations between the parties at issue before a favorable response came from the Fall River mill managers last week, but there was no strike or lock-out such as have characterized some previous struggles of this kind. The present week has exhibited a natural and most agreeable sequel to the action chronicled last week. An advance of varying amount is now declared in the principal mills of New Bedford, Taunton, and many other manufacturing places of Massachusetts, the great plants of the Knights and the Goddards in Rhode Island, and, in fact, in about all the mills devoted to print cloth and similar goods in the other New England States. It is estimated that some 90,000 employes are favorably affected by this general movement."

The increase of wages in the New England mills indicates the healthy state of the large cotton manufacturing industry there, and shows that the prices of mill products are based on the high prices for cotton, plain evidence that the mills are making profits that enable them to pay higher wages.

The comparative ease and quickness which have characterized this response to the demand for better wages is proof of the good business that has latterly characterized the cotton manufacturing industry of New England and of the excellent prospects of a continuance of the same. The principal solicitude of the mill managers just now, however, is as to obtaining sufficient help, many of the mills being more or less short-handed.

—At the risk of severing our friendly relations with foreign nations, some effort should be made to stop the exchange of American heiresses for high-sounding titles and impecunious princes.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

—They do not appear to have many leaks in the anti-trust laws of Ohio. On the heels of the ice cases they have convicted an agent of the Bridge Trust. There won't be much doing in the trust line after a while.—Philadelphia Press (Rep.).

—Mrs. Harry Thaw, wife of the murderer of Architect White in New York, promises a "thrilling tale" when she comes to the witness stand in behalf of her husband and the lovers of social rottenness and pruriency are pricking up their ears all over the country. One of the most serious and deplorable accompaniments of such tragedies as this one that has just shocked the country is that the sickening and shocking bestiality of the vicious and depraved habits and practices of the miserable "underworld" are paraded before the public during the progress of judicial proceedings, to the almost despairing sorrow of the good people of the land, and to the injury of the worldly minded and frivolous youth who gather therefrom demoralizing lessons of depravity and degeneracy.—Chattanooga Times.

A STORY OF PROGRESS

Six years ago Geo. O. Gaylord realized that his business had reahed the point that presented unusual opportunities of greater growth, and he laid his plans by building and moving into his present store on North Front Street which is a building of 49 feet front and one hundred and twenty-five feet deep and three stories high.

The location at the time was a little out of the trading section and it was generally surmised that his business would go to pieces because it was somewhat out of the range of other merchants. His reputation, however, was too well established. He moved his business to this seemingly out of the way location and with him went the trade.

He had been in business in this town for some ten years before beginning business with comparatively no capital and little or no experience, he has like the acorn now grown to be the oak and spreads the branches of his store over more floor space than any one men's store in North Carolina.

After being in this store for two years we found our floor space not large enough for our business and planned to build and did build another store three stories high with a frontage of 35 feet and a depth of 120 feet.

These twin stores he occupies alone and they are now filled to their utmost capacity.

Not satisfied; he is now planning to build still another additon to his store on a vacant lot in the rear to be 49 feet wide and 67 feet deep.

His business is increasing to such an extent and his departments becoming so cramped that he finds it a necessity to enlarge his store in this way to make room for his stock.

With this great amount of goods there must be represented a good assortment and his many departments are kept up full and complete.

He has a premium department which he has just been called upon to examine into as to the premiums given away within the last two weeks and the amount even surprised him. He cannot tell whether it pays or not, but he feels sure his customers appreciate it because they receive good and useful presents on their purchases while they cost them absolutely nothing.

This business is built up on a solid basis by dealing honestly, fairly and squarely with each and every one.

This store sells values and our merchandise sales grow daily.

This progress is no newspaper story. Look on the front of the big building on Front street and you will find only the name Geo. O. Gaylord on the store. He wants you to become a customer. He has goods to please any one and his assortment is so great than he can suit any one as to price.

In low prices and big values, he absolutely leads.

He keeps all classes of Summer goods and his stock is up to the minute.

Watch his progress. He has not reached the top yet. A few more years will unfold still greater surprises.

COME TO THE BIG DEPARTMENT STORE,

GOE. O. GAYLORD, Proprietor.

—The Commercial National Bank, of Charlotte, has opened a savings department.

—Judge W. H. Bynum, one of the best known citzens of the State, as well as one of the wealthiest, is quite ill at his home in Charlotte.

—Raleigh News and Observer, July 3: Henry Bailey, the negro murderer from Craven county, brought here for safekeeping two weeks ago, was taken back to Newbern yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Biddle, of Craven county. Bailey will be tried for his life.

—At Spencer Monday afternoon Roy Edison, a colored employe of L. B. Brickenstine, contractor on the municipal sewer system, was instantly killed by being buried alive under a huge embankment, which caved in upon the workmen. A large number of workmen narrowly escaped.

—The first city directory of Greater Asheville will be issued Wednesday July 4th. The last directory was issued two years ago and gave Asheville a population of about 18,000. The new directory gives this city a population of 22,355; or with the suburbs, 23,355.

—Rutherfordton was visited by another disastrous fire at 4 o'clock Monday morning. Eight business houses in the business centre were detroyed, together with stocks of merchandise. Loss about $30,000 with $12,000 insurance. Following the Levi fire about a month ago, the business part of the town is practically wiped out.

—The State Dairymen's Association which convenes in Raleigh during the Farmers' State Convention, has prepared a list of premiums to be given for best exhibits of butter in furtherance of the educational feature of the Association. The prizes are to be cash and persons who desire to contest should communicate with J. C. Kendall, West Raleigh, N. C.

—Charlotte Observer: A meeting is to be held at Yadkinville Wednesday to discuss means for securing a railroad outlet for Yadkin county. Interest has recently been revived in the proposed road from Lincolnton to Mt. Airy—the Statesville Air Line. It is to be hoped that some plan which will insure the construction of a road will be agreed upon. North Carolina needs more railroads.

—Raleigh News and Observer, July 3: Friends throughout all North Carolina will regret to learn that the condition of Rev. John W. Jenkins, D. D., Superintendent of the Methodist orphanage, is so critical that death may come at any moment. Dr. Jenkins was stricken with paralysis yesterday morning at five o'clock, and at eight o'clock there was another stroke. He is 74 years old, and his advanced age is such that his friends fear that he cannot survive the attack.

—Rutherfordton correspondence Charlotte Observer: The Observer's correspondent has just learned from a gentleman who returned from Marion yesterday—and he says that this information is from parties in a position to know the facts—that the South & Western Railway will be let to contractors this week for its construction from Marion to Rutherfordton, and that it will connect with the Seaboard Air Line at their station here. Our informant further states that the reason for suspending the work south of Marion a short time ago was to contract the work; that the Carolina Construction Company was expending too much money in constructing the road. The gentleman also said that there was nothing in the rumor that the South & Western was trying to acquire an interest in or buy the old Three C's from the Southern, that a separate and independent line would be built. Another piece of railroad news that will be of interest, is that the South & Western will stop here and not go to Spartanburg, S. C. as at first projected. The Carolina & Northern Railroad, a charter for which was recently obtained by Messrs. J. B. Cleveland, R. K. Carson and other Spartanburg parties, to be built to Rutherfordton to also connect with the Seaboard and South & Western, will also be built at an early date, that plans are now being perfected for its construction.

—Hamlet special, July 2: Yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock, in rear of Boyd's new hotel, there came near being a tragedy. Two men, Mr. Steven Carter, of Old Hundred, who has charge of Mr. Boyd's business during his absence from town, and Mr. Archie Lunsdon, who had had some trouble a few days ago, met and some words were exchanged. Both men drew their pistols and began firing at each other. Lunsdon received two flesh wounds and Carter one. Neither is seriously hurt. Carter received a preliminary hearing this morning before Mayor Atkinson and was bound over to court under a $250 bond, in default of which he was remanded to jail. Lunsdon is unable to leave his home, consequently the hearing in his case was postponed.

—Asheboro special, July 2: One of the most terrific wind and hail storms that has visited this section in many years came last night about 9 o'clock. It seemed to take a path through the centre of town, and blew down trees, unroofed one or two dwellings, blew down several chimneys and stove flues, took away the front of the old store of Wood & Moring near the court house, and completely wrecked the Christian church. The greatest damage sustained is to the church, it being leveled to the ground, destroying a good deal of the furniture and completely demolishing the church organ. The loss to the church is about $2,500, without any insurance. The steel windmill tower belonging to Col. McAlister was twisted off about half way up. The hail beat the corn into shreds and laid it low on the ground.

DIFFERENT KINDS OF ROBBERY.

Highway robbery is a small crime alongside some of the methods used in the commercial world. The low state of morals existing among some men who make their millions is illustrated in a statement of the method by which John W. Gates some ten days ago squeezed the Steel Trust for piles of money by running down its stock in the market. The Star published the dispatch concerning a cut in the price of Southern iron but the significance of the matter was not stated and no doubt was only known to Gates and his associate operators.

The Boston Commercial calls attention to the significance of the cut in iron, and strangely enough, what has been quite generally overlooked was the report contained in the financial columns of the daily papers last week that John W. Gates and his associates, who control the Tennessee Coal & Iron Company and the Republic Steel Company, has incited a price cutting war between both concerns in order to assist their bear attack against the shares of the United States Steel Corporation. The decline of 50 cents per ton in the price of southern foundry iron worked so well that Steel common stock dropped to 36 1-2, which is the lowest price it has touched during the present year. Naturally there was great jubilation in the bear crowd, and it was complacently pointed out that if the Gates interests had really cut Southern foundry iron prices with a view to smashing the market, the loss on the iron sales at cut prices must have been much more than compensated by the profits from short selling.

Possibly this report may have contained as much surmise as fact, but the fact that it was received with a great deal of credence in many circles indicates that it would not be unusual if the coup in question had been adopted. At the present time some of the principal iron concerns of the South are controlled by Wall street people, who draw no small part of their annual profits from stock speculation, and it is a matter of general knowledge that these people on several occasions in the past have manipulated the pig iron market for speculative purposes, pure and simple.

In stock market circles, however, such methods have met with little, if any condemnation. On the contrary, a great many people appear to regard these methods as perfectly legitimate for the purpose in view. What if the business equilibrium of the country is disturbed? What if the disturbance does spread to other industries and thus begin to undermine the prosperity of the country? All this is merely incidental to the campaign of the stock jobber.

What can be said of the conscience and morals of men who take such advantage of each other on a large scale? With the view that it is all merely incidental to the campaign of the stock jobber, the great mass of people will not agree. Such speculation degenerates into rank vice, and the method of the highwayman is decent and mild compared to the Gates method. It must be remembered also that such jobbery affects not only the iron manufacturers and the stock market but the consumers, as they have to pay higher prices when the market goes up, as the cut is all off before it gets down to the consumer.

COTTON MILL WAGES ADVANCED.

It will be interesting to the cotton growing belt to learn that the managers of the cotton mills of New England are quite generally making an advance of 5 to 10 per cent. in the wages of their employes. This advance applies mainly to such mills as during the time of depression in 1904 cut down wages, and since then had partially restored the original reduction of 12 1-2 per cent. The Boston Commercial Bulletin says of the increase:

"It is gratifying to note that this advance is being secured without either side resorting to any protracted or extreme efforts. There were arguments and consultations between the parties at issue before a favorable response came from the Fall River mill managers last week, but there was no strike or lock-out such as have characterized some previous struggles of this kind. The present week has exhibited a natural and most agreeable sequel to the action chronicled last week. An advance of varying amount is now declared in the principal mills of New Bedford, Taunton, and many other manufacturing places of Massachusetts, the great plants of the Knights and the Goddards in Rhode Island, and, in fact, in about all the mills devoted to print cloth and similar goods in the other New England States. It is estimated that some 90,000 employes are favorably affected by this general movement."

The increase of wages in the New England mills indicates the healthy state of the large cotton manufacturing industry there, and shows that the prices of mill products are based on the high prices for cotton, plain evidence that the mills are making profits that enable them to pay higher wages.

The comparative ease and quickness which have characterized this response to the demand for better wages is proof of the good business that has latterly characterized the cotton manufacturing industry of New England and of the excellent prospects of a continuance of the same. The principal solicitude of the mill managers just now, however, is as to obtaining sufficient help, many of the mills being more or less short-handed.

He is as radical as he ever was, but what a few years ago was considered radical is now called conservative, because the people have been investigating and have gained knowledge. The trust people who have been flocking to him (in print) will get a jolt in his latest deliverance. He entertains no idea of controlling the trusts. Such a thing is impossible. What he would do for them is this: "They must be absolutely and totally destroyed. Corporations should be controlled and regulated, but private monopolies must be exterminated, root and branch." That being the sort of a trust President Bryan would make, the intelligent reader will know how much faith to put in the talk that Mr. Kline and other trust officials have been indulging in recently.—Charlotte Chronicle.

A STORY OF PROGRESS

Six years ago Geo. O. Gaylord realized that his business had reahed the point that presented unusual opportunities of greater growth, and he laid his plans by building and moving into his present store on North Front Street which is a building of 49 feet front and one hundred and twenty-five feet deep and three stories high.

The location at the time was a little out of the trading section and it was generally surmised that his business would go to pieces because it was somewhat out of the range of other merchants. His reputation, however, was too well established. He moved his business to this seemingly out of the way location and with him went the trade.

He had been in business in this town for some ten years before beginning business with comparatively no capital and little or no experience, he has like the acorn now grown to be the oak and spreads the branches of his store over more floor space than any one men's store in North Carolina.

After being in this store for two years we found our floor space not large enough for our business and planned to build and did build another store three stories high with a frontage of 35 feet and a depth of 120 feet.

These twin stores he occupies alone and they are now filled to their utmost capacity.

Not satisfied; he is now planning to build still another additon to his store on a vacant lot in the rear to be 49 feet wide and 67 feet deep.

His business is increasing to such an extent and his departments becoming so cramped that he finds it a necessity to enlarge his store in this way to make room for his stock.

With this great amount of goods there must be represented a good assortment and his many departments are kept up full and complete.

He has a premium department which he has just been called upon to examine into as to the premiums given away within the last two weeks and the amount even surprised him. He cannot tell whether it pays or not, but he feels sure his customers appreciate it because they receive good and useful presents on their purchases while they cost them absolutely nothing.

This business is built up on a solid basis by dealing honestly, fairly and squarely with each and every one.

This store sells values and our merchandise sales grow daily.

This progress is no newspaper story. Look on the front of the big building on Front street and you will find only the name Geo. O. Gaylord on the store. He wants you to become a customer. He has goods to please any one and his assortment is so great than he can suit any one as to price.

In low prices and big values, he absolutely leads.

He keeps all classes of Summer goods and his stock is up to the minute.

Watch his progress. He has not reached the top yet. A few more years will unfold still greater surprises.

COME TO THE BIG DEPARTMENT STORE,

GOE. O. GAYLORD, Proprietor.

—Raleigh News and Observer, July 3: Henry Bailey, the negro murderer from Craven county, brought here for safekeeping two weeks ago, was taken back to Newbern yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Biddle, of Craven county. Bailey will be tried for his life.

—At Spencer Monday afternoon Roy Edison, a colored employe of L. B. Brickenstine, contractor on the municipal sewer system, was instantly killed by being buried alive under a huge embankment, which caved in upon the workmen. A large number of workmen narrowly escaped.

—The first city directory of Greater Asheville will be issued Wednesday July 4th. The last directory was issued two years ago and gave Asheville a population of about 18,000. The new directory gives this city a population of 22,355; or with the suburbs, 23,355.

—Rutherfordton was visited by another disastrous fire at 4 o'clock Monday morning. Eight business houses in the business centre were detroyed, together with stocks of merchandise. Loss about $30,000 with $12,000 insurance. Following the Levi fire about a month ago, the business part of the town is practically wiped out.

—The State Dairymen's Association which convenes in Raleigh during the Farmers' State Convention, has prepared a list of premiums to be given for best exhibits of butter in furtherance of the educational feature of the Association. The prizes are to be cash and persons who desire to contest should communicate with J. C. Kendall, West Raleigh, N. C.

—Charlotte Observer: A meeting is to be held at Yadkinville Wednesday to discuss means for securing a railroad outlet for Yadkin county. Interest has recently been revived in the proposed road from Lincolnton to Mt. Airy—the Statesville Air Line. It is to be hoped that some plan which will insure the construction of a road will be agreed upon. North Carolina needs more railroads.

—Raleigh News and Observer, July 3: Friends throughout all North Carolina will regret to learn that the condition of Rev. John W. Jenkins, D. D., Superintendent of the Methodist orphanage, is so critical that death may come at any moment. Dr. Jenkins was stricken with paralysis yesterday morning at five o'clock, and at eight o'clock there was another stroke. He is 74 years old, and his advanced age is such that his friends fear that he cannot survive the attack.

—Rutherfordton correspondence Charlotte Observer: The Observer's correspondent has just learned from a gentleman who returned from Marion yesterday—and he says that this information is from parties in a position to know the facts—that the South & Western Railway will be let to contractors this week for its construction from Marion to Rutherfordton, and that it will connect with the Seaboard Air Line at their station here. Our informant further states that the reason for suspending the work south of Marion a short time ago was to contract the work; that the Carolina Construction Company was expending too much money in constructing the road. The gentleman also said that there was nothing in the rumor that the South & Western was trying to acquire an interest in or buy the old Three C's from the Southern, that a separate and independent line would be built. Another piece of railroad news that will be of interest, is that the South & Western will stop here and not go to Spartanburg, S. C. as at first projected. The Carolina & Northern Railroad, a charter for which was recently obtained by Messrs. J. B. Cleveland, R. K. Carson and other Spartanburg parties, to be built to Rutherfordton to also connect with the Seaboard and South & Western, will also be built at an early date, that plans are now being perfected for its construction.

—Hamlet special, July 2: Yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock, in rear of Boyd's new hotel, there came near being a tragedy. Two men, Mr. Steven Carter, of Old Hundred, who has charge of Mr. Boyd's business during his absence from town, and Mr. Archie Lunsdon, who had had some trouble a few days ago, met and some words were exchanged. Both men drew their pistols and began firing at each other. Lunsdon received two flesh wounds and Carter one. Neither is seriously hurt. Carter received a preliminary hearing this morning before Mayor Atkinson and was bound over to court under a $250 bond, in default of which he was remanded to jail. Lunsdon is unable to leave his home, consequently the hearing in his case was postponed.

—Asheboro special, July 2: One of the most terrific wind and hail storms that has visited this section in many years came last night about 9 o'clock. It seemed to take a path through the centre of town, and blew down trees, unroofed one or two dwellings, blew down several chimneys and stove flues, took away the front of the old store of Wood & Moring near the court house, and completely wrecked the Christian church. The greatest damage sustained is to the church, it being leveled to the ground, destroying a good deal of the furniture and completely demolishing the church, organ. The loss to the church is about $2,500, without any insurance. The steel windmill tower belonging to Col. McAlister was twisted off about half way up. The hail beat the corn into shreds and laid it low on the ground.

DEATH OF REV. G. L. FINCH.

(Communicated.)

It is with deep regret that we chronicle the death of Rev. Gilbert Lafayette Finch which occurred in Richwood, West Virginia, on June 16th.

The deceased was born in Halifax county, North Carolina, in 1864, and was in the 42nd year of his age and from his earliest youth showed those honorable and upright qualities that have distinguished him all through life.

He received the collegiate education at Wake Forest college N. C., and labored in his master's vineyard with great zeal and success until four years ago when a severe attack of throat trouble necessitated his giving up the preaching of the gospel and entering another field of work.

Mr. Finch was married on June 25, 1895, to Miss Ida Naomi Barnes, of this city.

While in Valdosta, Ga., last December Mr. Finch had pneumonia which resulted in consumption and his wife accompanied him to St. Petersburg, Fla., hoping the change would benefit him. In April he was removed to Southern Pines, N. C., for special treatment and from there to the mountains of West Virginia where he lived but a week.

Owing to the critical illness of his wife Mr. Finch's remains were interred in Richwood, W. Va., for the present.

Besides his bereaved wife, Mr. Finch leaves one sister, Mrs. E. D. Washburn, of Richwood, W. Va., and one brother, Mr. W. B. Finch, of Columbia, S. C., all of whom have the sympathy of the entire community.

FUNERAL OF MR. TOLER

In the presence of a large assemblage of friends and those of the family, impressive funeral services were conducted at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the residence, No. 310 Red Cross street, over the remains of the late Mr. Thos. S. Toler. The services were by Rev. N. M. Watson, pastor of Grace M. E. church, assisted by Rev. Dr. McClure, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, the funeral hymns having been sweetly rendered by a special quartette composed of Mrs. F. A. Muse, Miss Mattie Horne, Mr. W. W. Hodges and Mr. H. K. Holden. The floral offerings were numerous and very handsome.

After the services at the house the interment took place in the Oakdale cemetery, the pall-bearers having been Messrs. Wm. E. Springer, Wm. E. Perdew, John Beery, W. B. Cooper, W. W. Hodges and W. E. King.

PRETTY DOUBLE WEDDING.

The Misses Woodcock Claimed as Brides by Delgado Young Men.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Woodcock, at Delgado last night at 8 o'clock, Rev. J. S. Crowley, pastor of Immanuel Presbyterian church, this city, officiated at a very pretty wedding ceremony which joined in marriage Miss Mary E. Woodcock and Mr. Ossie L. Meadows and Miss Susan C. Woodcock and Mr. W. Amos Heath. The one service was used, of course with the proper adaption, and the affair was one of the most interesting and pleasant ever witnessed by the large number of friends who had been invited. Both brides were dressed in white silk and the scene was a very pretty one indeed. All the parties reside at Delgado and have many friends there who will congratulate them upon the happy event in their lives.

SCOTT'S STATEMENT FROM THE SCAFFOLD

Mr. Bellamy Gone North.

Soon after the conference at the jail, Mr. Bellamy called there again and it was learned a few hours later that he contemplated leaving on the northern train, which he did. A reporter called upon him and asked if his visit north had anything to do with the case. He replied that he was going north on business and had nothing further to say. Asked if he would be present at the execution, he said that he would not say. Coupled with the fact that he was quite busy during the afternoon looking up railroad schedules and the fact that the United States Marshal has been requested by letter yesterday evening to make the hour of the execution in the afternoon instead of the morning, it is believed that Mr. Bellamy's mission north is to see President Roosevelt at Oyster Bay for the purpose of asking for executive clemency on the basis of some statement contained in this letter given out yesterday. Mr. Bellamy refused to answer a question just before leaving as to whether or not he would see the President while away. Should the letter contain an exoneration of Adams and Sawyer, under certain conditons, it is said to be possible that Scott's execution might be stayed until the case of the other men might be heard again before the Supreme Court in the light of the new testimony. It is known that Mr. Bellamy did not contemplate his trip north before the statement was given out yesterday and his trip under those circumstances is highly significant.

Scaffold Being Made Ready.

The scaffold in the county jail was being rigged up yesterday by Deputy Marshal C. O. Knox and Jailer Capps. U. S. Marshal Claudius Dockery will be here to-day from Raleigh and will make a test of the trap with a bag of sand to see that every thing is in readiness on the fateful day. It is believed that Mr. Dockery will grant Mr. Bellamy's request to postpone the execution until the afternoon as that discretion is allowed under the sentence, and that Mr. Bellamy will return on the Seaboard train that afternoon with a respite or something of the kind from the President in which event of course there will be no hanging.

Scott has written to his relatives that he desires that none of them attend the execution and that he wants his body turned over to the government in which event it will go to the University Medical School for dissection purposes. He is much broken in spirit now and says that he has made his peace with his God. Rev. Bennett, who has ministered to him in his spiritual wants, seems to be impressed with the sincerity of the negro now and believes that in the end, Scott will face his maker with a clean record and that justice will be met in every way in connection with the case.

Suits for Railroad Penalties.

In behalf of their client, J. A. Meedor, of Council's, N. C., Messrs. Herbert McClammy and W. P. Gafford, of this city, have brought suit in Justice Furlong's court for the penalty imposed in the Code Revisal according to an act of the last Legislature, upon all railroads failing to deliver freight in a reasonable length of time. These suits are against the S. A. L. and Meedor asks for penalties aggregating $850 in three cases. One instance was a car load of wagons, upon which it is alleged there was a delay of two months from some point in this State.

Quartette of Disorderlies.

Constable Savage and Deputy Sheriff J. W. Smith last night about 11 o'clock rounded up a quartette of disorderly habitues of Yopp's alley, between Chestnut and Grace and Fifth and Sixth streets. They were lodged in jail for a hearing before Justice Furlong at 8 o'clock this morning. As there have been frequent complaints of disorder from the quarters occupied by the quartette, a charge of nuisance will be preferred unless they agree to remove. The defendants are Manda Lofton, Ida Fields, Minnie Johnson and Dora Williams, all colored.

Hanover Seaside Club.

Although their handsome new club house has not yet been completed, the Hanover Seaside Club has been cordially welcomed into the club life of Wrightsville Beach. Both Carolina and the Atlantic organizations have extended their courtesies to all members of Hanover Seaside Club for the Fourth of July and many of the latter organization will be guests at the sister club houses to-day.

The Republican Convention.

Later reports seem to indicate that the Republican convention Monday night was not altogether harmonious. It is stated that Capt. Fred. B. Rice, the chairman, led a fight for the Blackburn forces and lost out only by a narrow margin.

the party in the State to support Bryan for President and Aycock for Vice President in 1908. There was some objections to taking such action at this time on the ground that it was premature, but the resolution was adopted by a vote of 511 to 59.

The greater part of the night session was taken up in discussing amendments to the platform offered by Maj. Hale, putting the convention on record as favoring such amendments to the constitution as will permit of a graduated income tax, and the election of Federal judges other than Justices of the Supreme Court by a direct vote of the people. While the amendments were originally offered by Maj. Hale, it was a substitute by J. D. Murphy which finally prevailed. The platform is lengthy and advocates among other things the enlargement of the powers of the Corporation Commission, legislation to force railroads to make connection as scheduled and to empower the Corporation Commission to fix just and reasonable telephone tolls and rentals; amending the law against free passes so as to make a receiver equally guilty with the corporations giving them; demanding a revision of the tariff, opposing the granting of charters in perpetuity. John D. Bellamy, of Wilmington, opposed the last named clause and moved to strike it out, but the motion was overwhelmingly defeated. At 11:15 o'clock the convention adjourned.

THE BEACH CASINO.

Three Performances To-day and To-night—Last of "DuBarry."

Manager Johnson, of the Wrightsville Beach Casino, is succeeding much better with his second week's offering at the seaside playhouse. He now has a strong and talented company and is presenting "DuBarry" in a manner that would do credit to many of the one-night stand companies. A large audience was pleased with the production last night and to-day and to-night the Casino promises to be more largely patronized than ever before. There will be three or more performances during the day, which will be announced by crier at Lumina ten minutes before the curtain goes up in each instance. To-night "DuBarry" will be presented for the last time and all are advised to see it. Miss Lewis and her supporting company are exceptionally clever and have demonstrated that they are well able to handle the piece.

Thursday night the company will present one of Hal. Reid's favorites, "Hearts of the Blue Ridge," full of human interest and cleverly staged. The matinee prices are ten cents; night performances 25 cents.

Co-Operative Building and Loan.

The Co-operative Building and Loan Association, of this city, has just closed its third series of stock and the showing made is an excellent one; indeed, it is one of the best ever made by a Wilmington association. The series ran 322 weeks and the stockholders paid in $80.50 per share and drew our $100 per share. The Co-operative is a home institution, demosstrating its ability for a good, safe investment for all classes. The shareholders in the series just matured received checks for their amounts promptly and without any red tape. The officers of the Association are Mr. W. E. Worth, president; Mr. W. E. Yopp, vice president; Mr. T. H. Wright, secretary and treasurer, and Mr. T. W. Davis, attorney.

Bound Over for Nuisance.

In Justice Furlong's court yesterday, upon warrants sworn out by Mr. D. D. Cameron, a resident in the neighborhood, Caledonia Roderick, Caledonia Blake, her daughter, and Ada Robinson, white women, and Joe Dannehower, white, were each bound over to the Superior Court to answer the charge of constituting a nuisance where they live in the southern part of the city. The women gave $25 bond and the man went to jail in default of $100 bond for his appearance. Dannehower was represented by Wm. J. Bellamy, Esq., and the women by W. P. Gafford, Esq.

Harbor Master's Report.

The report of Capt. Edgar Williams, harbor master at the port of Wilmington, shows arrivals of vessels of 90 tons over during the month of June as follows: American—10 steamers, 14,682 tons; one barge, 1,050 tons, and one schooner, 468 tons. Total vessels, 12; total tonnage, 16,200. Foreign—Two steamships, 3,400 tons; one barque, 384 tons, and one schooner, 268 tons; total vessels, 4; total tonnage 4,052. The grand total tonnage was 20,252, which makes a very favorable comparison with the same month last year.

The Mayor's Court Yesterday.

The Mayor's court yesterday was not interesting. Peter Watters, colored, arrested at the C. C. depot by Officer C. H. Tatum, for being drunk and down, was let off with the costs. Owen Meredith, arrested on suspicion of having stolen a pair of shoes which he carried in his hands unwrapped, was discharged. Warren Thorne and the irrepressible "Fonzie" Robinson, both as black as the ace of spades, were arraigned for fighting. "Fonzie" paid the cost; the other belligerent was dismissed.

TO STEADY COTTON PRICES.

Believed International Cotton Congress Has Hit Upon Plan.

London, July 3.—Charles Wright Macara, chairman of the committee of the International Federation of Master Cotton Spinners and Manufacturers' Associations, who just returned here from the cotton spinners' congress at Bremen, thinks that the international organization is within measurable distance of obtaining its main objects, namely the steadying of prices, the checking of professional gambling operations, the appointment of a commission to investigate the rules of cotton exchanges and finally, the improvement of the ginning, baling, transport and marketing of cotton. He considers the decision to improve the marketing, etc., of cotton to be the most important taken by the Bremen congress. He estimates that $5,000,000 could be annually saved in these items in American cotton alone and believes that the strong financial position o fthe American growers enabling them to hold their cotton will have an important influence in steadying prices, and while Mr. Macara considers that the desired minimum price, ten cents, to be exceedingly profitable, he thinks that users will not grumble at it.

Finally, Mr. Macara attaches great importance to the promise of the users of cotton that America is prepared to co-operate with the European spinners.

TO PROSECUTE THE ICE MEN.

Believed That They Are In Conspiracy in Washington.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, July 3.—The municipal officials have initiated steps with a view to the prosecution of the responsible individuals, if upon investigation it develops that the present ice famine in Washington is the result of a conspiracy to raise the price of that commodity in restraint of trade. District Commissioner West to-day called the attention of the corporation counsel to action under way in other cities into the alleged illegal operations of ice dealers and asked to be informed whether developments here warrant similar steps, and if so whether such action should be initiated by the Federal or the municipal authorities. The commissioner declares that if a conspiracy exists in Washington to deliberately rob the people by increasing the price of ice somebody should be made to suffer for it.

The ice scarcity in Washington has existed for several days. The dealers declare it to be due to the fact that they have been delayed in getting supplies of natural ice from Maine to this city, a situation which they say will soon remedy itself.

TOM TAGGART'S HOTEL RAIDED.

Effort to Take Away Charter on Charge of Gambling.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Paoli, Ind., July 3.—Attorney General Charles Miller, acting under instructions from Governor Hanly, today filed in the Orange County Courts an action to revoke the charter of the French Lick Springs Hotel Company at French Lick, this county. The company is a corporation of which Thomas Taggart, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, is president. It is charged that gambling is allowed on the property owned by the hotel company.

The casino at French Lick is described at length in the complaint, and the charge is made that children are allowed to frequent the gaming tables. Claim is made that the company derives an income of $50,000 annually from the gambling features. A second suit was filed by the Attorney General against the Baden Springs Hotel Company, in which demand is made for the revocation of the company's charter on account of alleged permission of gambling on the property.

Sehriff Maris, Deputy Sheriff Jones, Constable Baggery and City Marshal John Salich raided the casino at the French Lick and West Baden Springs Hotels to-day at the same hour that Attorney General Miller filed proceedings in the Orange County Circuit Court. A number of arrests were made and considerable gaming paraphernalia was captured.

ELEVEN MINERS WERE KILLED.

Terrible Result of Runaway Car in Pennsylvania.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Altoona, Pa., July 4.—Eleven men, who were returning from Portage to Puritan, both mining towns, were killed shortly before midnight on the Martin's branch, a spur running from Portage to Puritan, a distance of four miles, by a runaway car, which had been started down the steep mountain grade by some unknown person. The miners had been to Portage and were returning to their homes. When the car was finally stopped near Portage it was seen that the wheels were covered with blood and shreds of clothing, and an investigation disclosed the bodies of the men laying along the track. Some of the bodies were a half mile apart. Not more than two bodies were found in any one spot.

The railroad track is generally traversed by people going from Portage to Puritas. Cars never run over the line after night fall.

EARTHQUAKE IN NEW MEXICO.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Albuquerque, ... M., July 3.—Beginning at 3:15 o'clock yesterday morning, Socorro, 75 miles south of this city, experienced a succession of severe earthquake shocks. There were two or three premonitory quivers. Then came a subterranean rumble followed by rocking gand swaying that awakened every inhabitant and sent them scurring into the streets. Walls were cracked, plaster shaken from ceilings, doors, windows and dishes rattled and were broken.

The disturbance continued at intervals of a few minutes for half an hour, then gradually died away, the last of no less than twenty distinct shocks being felt about two hours later.

WARM WIRELETS.

A cablegram from Salisbury, England, states that the surviving injured in the railroad wreck are doing well. Edward B. Tennant, member of Parliament for Salisbury, yesterday cabled President Roosevelt the sympathy of the citizens of Salisbury with the relatives and friends of the victims. The bodies of the dead have been prepared for shipment to the United States.

At Altoona, Pa., yesterday, judgment for $40,000 was entered in the Blair County Court in favor of Charles ... Greek, an Altoona contractor, against the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, which corporation Greek sued for illegal car discrimination. The defendant company had failed to ... an affidavit of defense in the required limit.

At Richmond yesterday, the Attorney General of Virginia commenced proceedings before the State Corporation Commission to enforce the Churchman two-cent passenger mileage law when he filed a petition and complaint on behalf of the State against the Atlantic Coast Line, alleging violation of the law. The commission made an order citing the road in question to appear and make answer to the complaint on the 28th instant.

At Lincolnton yesterday E. Y. Webb Democrat, of the Seventh North Carolina district, was re-nominated for his third time in Congress by acclamation amidst much enthusiasm. At Lexington R. N. Page, Democrat, of the Seventh North Carolina district, was nominated for his second term. District is Democratic.

WANTED A RAISE.

A Story of Marshall Field and One of His Pensioners.

Among the charities of Marshall Field was a pension list of persons to whom a stated sum was sent regularly each month. With these he was generous, but he disliked being imposed upon. One man, who had in some way impressed Mr. Field with his deserts, had a check each thirty days for $25.

He had gone far from Mr. Field's memory, but remained on the list. His pension made him quite "an eligible party" in the circle in which he lived, and at last he yielded to the blandishments of his landlady, an elderly, prosperous widow, and married her.

"Now, Henry," she said to him next day, "we'll just be having your pay raised. You can't keep two as easily as you can one. Mr. Field is a rich man, and he will understand that. You go down and tell him you need $50 a month now."

Away went Henry, and after much argument and persuasion obtained access to the inner office of the great merchant, where he stated his case. Mr. Field became interested at once.

"A widow, eh?" he inquired, smiling. "Did she ask you or you her?"

"Well, sir," stammered Henry, "I guess she did lead up to it."

"How old is she?"

"About forty, sir."

"Did she support herself?"

"Yes, sir. She has a big boarding house. I boarded with her. I do yet, in fact."

"Ah, yes," said Mr. Field. "So you want a raise, do you? Let me see. How much was your pension? Twenty-five dollars? Well, you won't have to pay any board now, so suppose we make it twelve and a half? That will keep you in spending money."—Youth's Companion.

CHORUS GIRL'S TALK ON TRAGEDY

Tell How Men of Stanford White Type Make Mashes—Dangers That Lurk Behind Footlights.

New York, July 2.—Consequent upon the revelations of the Thaw-White tragedy, great interest is being taken in the chorus girl question. It is known, for instance, that White, just before he was killed, made a vain effort to get an introduction to the newest pretty face that had struck his fancy, Miss Maud Fulton, one of the most attractive chorus girls in 'Mamzelle Champagne," and the question that is being asked is whether the chorus girl is more "sinned against than sinning" in leading what is called the "Broadway life."

Of course, there are very different points of view. Clara Morris, as a veteran of the stage, has just written an article on the tragedy in which she blames the men entirely, while as for the chorus girls themselves, when interviewed, those that speak frankly often take contrary views of the situation. For instance, Miss Maud Fulton, of the 'Mamzelle Champagne" Company, was so unsophisticated when spoken to that she had no opinion whatsoever. She did not know White, because Stage Manager Lawrence had flatly refused to introduce him.

Another one of the Madison Square Garden girls talked quite freely, however, and when spoken to said:

"Do you want me to tell the truth?"

"Of course," was the reply.

"Then you will have to promise me that you won't mention my name. It would cost me my job and prevent me from getting another one.

"The principal fault is with the girls themselves. Most of them are anxious to have millionaires introduced to them. Temptations? Nonsense! They are hunting for such temptations.

"Chorus girls run no more risk of being led astray than girls in any other walk of life.

"There are certain men to whom theatrical managers cannot deny certain privileges. Stanford White was one of these. He built Madison Square Garden and was vice president of the company that owned it. Consequently he had a right to go anywhere he liked.

"Most chorus girls considered it a great feather in their cap to be seen with Stanford White or his associates. He was generous to an extreme. If he had a pet in a show she could entertain the entire company at his expense. He paid doctors' bills for chorus girls he never saw; he paid hundreds of dollars for cabs for girls and their friends.

"Every girl knew what his attentions meant, and most of us would have given up a year's pay to get those attentions.

"On one occasion he gave a little dinner to a lot of girls, each of whom found a $20 gold piece under a box of candy at her plate. There was not a girl there who did not know what delicate hint was hidden in that gold piece, and when they were given to understand that things would become pretty lively before the night was over and that any one who did not care to contribute her share might leave her $20 gold piece and go, those who stayed did so because they wanted to stay."

Two other girls who were interviewed, Miss Florence Walton and Miss Bessie Fennell, two of the prettiest and most intelligent girls in the chorus of "His Honor the Mayor," when asked, "Is it a fact that rich men can meet any chorus girl they desire?" replied promptly, "Almost."

"How do they do it?"

"Generally by being introduced," replied Miss Walton.

"And when they cannot get an introduction," put in Miss Fennell, "they manage to introduce themselves. They often force themselves upon us."

"But you don't have to encourage their attentions, do you?" was asked.

"Of course not. No girl is obliged to recognize a man who has been introduced to her with anything more than the nod of politeness. If a girl receives attentions from such men it is because they are agreeable to her."

"What is the first advance such a man makes?"

"Generally an invitation to dinner or supper," replied Miss Walton. "That is when he has been properly introduced. Others try to break the ice by throwing bouquets—and there have been a few occasions when such bouquets contained diamonds or $100 bills—and follow this up with 'mash notes.'"

TAFT'S ATTITUDE ON PRESIDENCY

Friends of Secretary of War Declare That He Must Listen to Call of His Party.

Washington, July 2.—That the President did not send in the nomination of Secretary Taft as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court before Congress adjourned is interpreted in some quarters as meaning that the Secretary is a candidate for the presidential nomination in 1908. Justice Brown retired from the bench early in May and there was ample time for the President to have appointed his successor and the Senate to have confirmed the nomination before the adjournment of Congress.

It has been known to the President's intimate friends for some time that he does not expect to fill this vacancy until Fall and probably not until Congress meets in December. It has been generally supposed that Secretary of War Taft would be named, but recently some of the latter's closest friends have declared that Mr. Taft would not accept the appointment.

"If the Secretary had any idea of going on the Supreme Bench it is doubtful if he would have made the speech he did at Bedford, Pa., last week," said one of his Cabinet associates to-day. "In that address, you will remember, he said: 'There is nothing so detrimental to the poor man as the right which, if given to him, must be given to the wealthiest party—that of carrying litigation to the highest court.' This might be interpreted by some men to mean that the poor man would stand no show against the wealthy man in an appeal to the Supreme Court, and is a statement one would hardly expect from a man who expected to become a member of that court."

Mr. Taft has ceased discussing the Supreme Court appointment with his friends, although there is no doubt he could have it if he evinced a desire for it, and is giving his undivided attention to the work of his office, which brings him into great prominence in public affairs. Many of his friends declare that Mr. Taft must listen to the call for his entry into the presidential race. He is regarded as more nearly representing the President's policies than any other man whose name has been mentioned in connection with the Republican nomination. While he stands for the great reform issues of Theodore Roosevelt, he at the same time is less impetuous and his methods of accomplishing results are far more conservative than those of the President.

There is reason to believe that President Roosevelt wants Mr. Taft to become a candidate for the presidency. While there is no authoritative confirmation of the report that he declared a few days ago that "Secretary Taft is the only man who can defeat William J. Bryan," those who have talked with the President believe the latter has that thought in his mind if he did not utter it. It is certain that other candidates for the presidential nomination are envious of the President's apparent preference for Mr. Taft and they are ready to indulge in criticisms of it.

It is expected that the political events of the next few months, the temper of the people as shown in the Congressional elections this year and the attitude of the people toward President Roosevelt's administration and reform policies will bring Secretary Taft to a decision as to whether he will accept a place on the Supreme Bench or continue where he is and become a candidate for the Republican nomination for the presidency in 1908.

A Tragic Finish.

A watchman's neglect permitted a leak in the great Northern Sea dyke, which a child's finger could have stopped, to become a ruinous break, devastating an entire province of Holland. In like manner Kenneth McIver, of Vanceboro, Me., permitted a little cold to go unnoticed until a tragic finish was only averted by Dr. King's New Discovery. He writes: "Three doctors gave me up to die of lung inflamation caused by a neglected cold; but Dr. King's New Discovery saved my life. Guaranteed best cough and cold cure, at all druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

THE COTTON MARKETS.

New York, July 3.—The feature in the cotton market to-day was the government's July report, placing the condition of the crop at 83.3 per cent. against 84.6 per cent. last month. This condition was a little under local expectations and was followed by a moderate advance, but there was no excitement and prices lost part of the day in the later trading with the close steady at a decline of 2 points to an advance of 3 points. The opening was steady at a decline of 7 to 9 points on the old crop and 4 to 6 points on the new crop months in response to lower cables, good weather over the South and predictions that the government report would show a condition of around 85 per cent., but at the decline there was covering by parties who had sold yesterday and the market rallied to about the cloisng figures of the previous day on the active months before the government report was issued. The publication of the report was followed by a further advance carrying July to 10.26 or 2 points net higher, while later months showed gains of 5 to 9 points with December selling at 10.38. But the short interest seemed to be a small one and after some little irregularity the market yielded in the absence of fresh buying for long account and lost most of the gain. The weekly bureau report was bearish.

Estimated receipts at the ports today 5,613 bales against 7,605 last week and 10,342 last year. For the week 25,000 bales against 30,625 last week and 62,549 last year. To-day's receipts at New Orleans 1,257 bales against 3,000 last year and at Houston 878 bales against 4,638 last year.

DRYGOODS MARKET.

New York, July 3.—The usual mid-Summer dullness was accentuated in the dry goods market to-day by the near approach of the holiday. Buyers were scarce in the dry goods district and business remained very quiet on heavy goods. Print cloths are unchanged. Cotton yarn prices are irregular and slightly weaker. Jobbers have surpassed last year in most departments on the six months' business just closed, wash goods and fine combed yarn fabrics being particularly well sold.

CHORUS GIRL WIFE TO TELL EVERYTHING

Will Testify at Trial of Harry Thaw and Not Flinch at Ordeal—She Was Twice Married to Thaw.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York, July 3.—"When the time comes I shall be only too glad to talk and tell all. I shall not flinch at the ordeal, nor will I break down. My one thought now is to be of service to my husband."

This statement was made by Mrs. Harry K. Thaw just before she was admitted to see her husband at the Tombs today and is the first time she had consented to takk of her probable attitude in the coming trial of Thaw for the murder of Stanford White.

Mrs. Thaw also denied the saatement in the ante-mortem testimony of Valet Bedford to the effect that she was not married to Thaw abroad, previous to the ceremony performed by Rev. Dr. W. L. McEwen in Pittsburg, at the request of Thaw's mother.

"I was married to Mr. Thaw abroad," said Mrs Thaw, "before the ceremony in this country and I have the proof, all statements to the contrary notwithstanding. I shall produce the proof at the trial."

Mrs. Thaw paid her usual visit to her husband at the Tombs today, remainng in conversation with him for a considerable time. She was awaited outside by the usual large crowd of curiosity seekers that gathers each day to watch her come and go.

Former Judge Olcott, Thaw's chief counsel, had a conference with his client this afternoon. He was accompanied by a Mr. Keck, who is said to be the attorney for the Thaw family at Pittsburg. When Judge Olcott left he carried with him a bundle of about seventy letters which Thaw had received through the mails. Judge Olcott stated that owing to the number of letters sent daily to Thaw he would have some member of a law firm open them in the future before they reach him and thus save the young man considerable annoyance.

Assistant District Attorney Garvan today secured possession of the reports of the three detectives, I. W. Rorke, William McDonald and Harry Raleigh, who were employed by Thaw to watch the movements of Stanford White. Thaw will go on trial on the charge of killing White on his simple plea of "not guilty," the time limit for interposing any motion or demurrer by counsel having expired today.

Broke News to Mother.

Tillbury, Eng., July 3.—The news of the tragedy in the Madison Square Roof Garden, New York, June 25, when Harry Thaw shot and killed Stanford White, had not been communicated to his mother, Mrs. Thaw, when the Atlantic Transport Line steamer Minneapolis from New York, June 23, docked here this morning. Extraordinary precautions were taken on board to keep any inkling of the tragedy from her until relatives were able to break the news.

Mrs. Thaw who had been unusually cheerful throughout the voyage was met by her son-in-law, the Earl of Yarmouth, and Elair Thaw, who came to Tilbury to welcome her, and her face was wreathed in smiles when she landed. As she stepped ashore Mrs. Thaw was surrounded by friends and detectives, the latter being detailed to prevent any stranger from approaching her. After landing Mrs. Thaw and her party boarded a special train, from which reporters were expressly excluded. As the train pulled out of the station Mrs. Thaw was still smiling, apparently being in continued ignorance of the tragedy. The Earl of Yarmouth said that he would not break the news to her until they reached the house. On her arrival in London, Mrs. Thaw was driven to the residence of the Earl of Yarmouth where the news of the tragedy at New York, June 25, was broken to her. She bore up splendidly under the blow but has not decided upon her future movements. It is probable that Mrs. Thaw will go to Switzerland and not return to America immediately, as her health is poor.

COL. AND MRS. BRYAN ARRIVE IN LONDON

Many Distinguished Men and Newspaper Representatives Call Upon Him—Will Not Say He is Candidate for the Presidency.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

London, July 3.—William J. Bryan and Mrs. Bryan arrived from Norway late this afternoon. They landed at New Castle yesterday and remained there over the day, Mr. Bryan desiring a chance to quietly complete some writing. Arriving there, Mr. Bryan went to the Hotel Cecil, where he soon was besieged by callers. John Burns, William T. Stead and Mrs. Stead came early in the evening and paid an extended visit. Messrs. Bryan, Burns and Stead engaged in an animated discussion of economics and of the social and labor questions. Mr. Bryan received a great mass of American mail. When he had finished reading his letters, he received a deputation of newspaper correspondents and dictated the following statement:

"The first suggestion of a reception for me at New York came prior to the action of any of the State conventions and before there was any discussion of the next campaign. It came from the Commercial Travellers' League, of which Mr. Hoge is president. I assured him I should be pleased to meet the members of the league, suggesting that the reception be characterized by simplicity. Now that the actions of some of the State conventions have raised a question as to the political significance of the reception, I am glad to say that it must not be regarded in the light of an indorsement for the Presidential nomination. While I appreciate the compliment paid by the various State conventions, I do not regard their expressions as binding upon them or upon the party of their State. I shall not prosecute them for breach of promise if they transfer their affections to another; I will not even publish their letters. To allow the reception to be regarded as an indorsement would in the first place be unjust to others who may be candidates.

"I have seen the names of several mentioned as possible candidates, among them Congressman Hearst, Senator Bailey and Governor Folk, who have all rendered conspicuous service to the party and the country and their claims should be considered. The party is entiteld to its most available man, and the question of availability cannot be determined so far in advance. Circumstances and issues may strengthen the claims of some one of the gentlemen mentioned and the list should be an open one until the time comes to choose.

"I may add that it would not be just to me to be put in the attitude of announcing my candidacy or admitting the certainty of my being a candidate. It is two years before the convention meets, and I am not willing to sit on a stool and look pretty that long. I prefer to be in a position to say what I think ought to be said, write what I think ought to be written and do what I think ought to be done. I am advancing in years and cannot spare two years out of my life just at this time.

"I shall be glad to return to America, although every day of my trip has been enjoyable. I shall be glad to meet my friends in America, and after I have met them they will be just as free as before to do what they think best on issues and candidates."

When told that Mayor George B. McClellan was in London, Mr. Bryan said he had not heard he was here. He expressed his gratification that Mr. McClellan had escaped from the Salisbury railroad wreck, and said he hoped to meet him.

Mr. Bryan will speak at the American Society dinner to-morrow night. Mr. and Mrs. Bryan will spend the week end with Ambassador and Mrs. Reid at Wrest Park, and then will go to Italy, returning here July 23, when Mr. Bryan will attend the inter-parliamentary conference. Mr. and Mrs. Bryan will then make a tour of Scotland, going thence to France and Spain.

Still Ahead in Low Prices

Our regular prices are much cheaper than any special prices yet advertised. Our goods are NEW. The following shows how and why we do and can undersell.

Discount on account of large purchases, average,	10 pr. ct
Discount for cash (we pay cash), average	10 pr. ct
Savings of freight on car shipment, average	5 pr. ct
Total,	25 pr. ct

As you see, we can sell goods at a profit of 25 per cent. and at the same time sell them for just what they would cost us if we bought in small quantities, paid local freight and bought on time. We do not try to make 25 per cent.

Our claim is corroborated by the number of prudent purchasers we send. For June the 1st to the present, we have sold $4,540.21 worth of goods, received more than $3,300.00 in cash. Our books are open for inspection of any doubters. When in need of furniture come to headquarters.

CHOLERA SCOURGE IN PHILIPPINES

Disease of Deadly Type Prevails in Manila and Surrounding Provinces.

THREE SOLDIERS HAVE DIED

Forty-Seven New Cases and Forty-One Deaths Yesterday—Situation Alarming—Natives Concealing Cases From Authorities.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Manila July 3.—Cholera of a virulent type has broken out among the natives of Manila and surrounding provinces. Four Americans in Manila have been stricken to date and one American has died. His name is Chas Sheehan. Twenty-one cases and sixteen deaths were reported today. The provinces report twenty-six cases and twenty-five deaths. The disease is of the most deadly type.

The suburbs near Fort McKinley have been quarantined. There has been one death from cholera among the soldiers, that of a cook, Christian G. Dwight, of Company C., Sixteenth Infantry. The health bureau is taking every precaution to prevent the spread of the disease.

A circular has been distributed among the citizens warning them of the danger and requiring that precautions be taken. While the situation is serious, the health officials do not look for an epidemic of great proportions. The great difficulty is experienced in getting natives to report cases of sickness. The Filipinos fear the health officials and are concealing cases from them. To this cause is assigned the spread of the disease.

War Department in the Dark.

Washington, July 3.—The bureau of Insular Affairs of the War Department has no dispatches from Manila indicating that cholera is epidemic in the Philippines although it has been known that it has existed in a mild form in parts of the islands. The last deaths from cholera reported to the bureau were several months ago, when two soldiers at Fort McKinley died from that disease. Medical officers were fighting the disease with success and hoped at that time to have it eradicated in a short time.

The Public Health and Marine Hospital Service also is without advices on this subject.

The date set on the New York Stock Exchange for subscriptions to the $30,000,000 Panama canal bond issue is July 30th. On the Exchange yesterday securities of the American Ice Company were depressed by Aldermanic motion in New York against the scale of prices to consumers.

TERRORISTS KILL WARSAW POLICE

Three More Victims Added to Already Large List of Assassinations.

REVENGE FOR EXECUTIONS

Troops Who Hurried to Scene of One Murder Fired Volley, Killing Passer-by — Policemen Notified They Are Marked.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Warsaw, Russian Poland, July 3.—The territorists' determination to exterminate the police force shows no signs of wavering. Before noon today two more police sergeants were added to the already long death roll. Both men were shot and killed in the streets and in each case the assassins escaped. Another policeman was killed this evening. A patrol which hurried to the scene of the murder fired a volley, killing a passer-by. Every policeman has now been withdrawn from the streets. The police demand the dismissal of the authorities.

Berlin, July 3.—A dispatch to the Lokal-Anzeiger today from Warsaw says that the murders of policemen there are regarded as being part of a systematic plan of the terrorists instituted out of revenge for the recent executions as the result of trials by court martial. Many policemen have received anonymous notices to the effect that they are marked for death unless they resign on or before today. Some of these thereupon resigned and were arrested by order of the authorities.

RAISED BILLS IN CAROLINA

Two Notorious Crooks Arrested by Government Detectives.

Washington, July 3.—Chief Wilkie of the secret service was notified today of the arrest at Huntington, W. alleged gang of notorious note raisers Irving Tolley, the leader of the gang, Va., of Charles Jackson, one of an was arrested in Baltimore a few days ago. Tolley has given the secret service officials trouble for several years. He was convicted of raising bank notes at Nashville Tennessee, and sentenced to a term of five years in the Tennessee penitentiary. He escaped from prison and since has been at large. He was captured in Baltimore and will be tried there for the new offense. Jackson is said to have assisted Tolley in the work of raising the notes and passing them. They used two dollar bills, raising them to tens and twenties, which were passed in West Virginia, Virginia Tennessee and in North and South Carolina.

MR. ROOSEVELT WILL BE ORATOR

To Make Fourth of July Speech at Oyster Bay Celebration To-day.

EXCURSIONS WILL BE RUN

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Oyster Bay, July 3.—President Roosevelt today took up the work of administering governmental affairs from Sagamore Hill. Tomorrow he will make an address to his neighbors in celebration of the Fourth.

Secretary Leob laid before him this morning a large assortment of correspondence. Its dispatch took several hours. The business which naturally will come to the President as the result of operation of new laws, and the beginning of the fiscal year, has not as yet reached him from Washington and the work today was said to be unimportant from the standpoint of public interest.

Upon inquiry at the executive office it was ascertained that the salary of Secretary Bishop of the Isthmian Canal Commission, will be $10,000 a year. This leaves Mr. Bishop's compensation exactly as it has been heretofore, when he drew $7,500 as a member of the commission and $2,500 as its secretary.

Oyster Bay is experiencing Fourth of July thrills in anticipation of the celebration when the President is to address an open air gathering at Locust Grove, in the outskirts of the village. Decorations have been put in place and the town given a holiday appearance. Excursions are expected to cross the sound from the Connecticut towns of Stamford, Bridgeport, Greenwich and Norwich, and the New York trains are to bring their quota.

The town council has appropriated $250 to supply additional peace protection and many deputies are being sworn in tonight for service tomorrow. The President has not prepared his speech but is expected to talk to his neighbors and friends for half an hour or more. Preceding and following his address there will be patriotic songs by the children of the village augmented by the choirs of the village churches.

Replying to an invitation to be present tomorrow, extended by the local arrangements committee, Postmaster General Cortelyou wired his regrets tonight as follows: "Greatly regret inability to join in celebration tomorrow. We will be with you in spirit. I give three cheers and a tiger for your distinguished speaker.'

FEUD MURDERS IN KENTUCKY

WITNESS IMPLICATED THEM

Asbury Spicer Says He Was Offered $500 to Kill J. B. Marcum But Refused—Also Declined to Murder Cockrill.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Beattyville, Ky., July 3.—A sensation was caused here today at the trial of former Judge Hargis and former Sheriff Callahan, of Breathitt county, charged with the murder of James Marcum. Asbury Spicer, as it was announced, made a confession implicating the two chief defendants.

On the day Marcum was killed Spicer was in Jackson, Ky., he claims. He said that a few minutes before the killing he was sent by "Jim" Hargis to get "Tom" White and was later dispatched by "Ed" Callahan, to get Curtis Jett. A few minutes later while Spicer was in the Hargis store two shots rang out and Marcum fell dead in the front door of the court house. Spicer said that he was offered $500 to kill Marcum. The offer, he said, was made a few days before Marcum was killed. Spicer said he had refused to kill Marcum and that he had also refused previously to kill "Jim" Cockrill. Another motion for continuance because of the absence of witnesses was made today by the commonwealth. Attorney Young for the defense said all of the "star" witnesses for the prosecution were on hand and he urged that the trial proceed. Attorney Young charged that the Commonwealth had made no effort to get ready and said that it was apparently the intention of the prosecution to bankrupt the defendants. Judge Dorsey interrupted and reprimanded Br. Young.

Judge Dorsey decided to proceed with the case. He announced that he would give the Commonwealth every opportunity to secure the presence of its witnesses. He appointed several elisors to go in different counties and brig to court those wanted.

Abe Attell and Frankie Neil are ready for their fight at Los Angeles this afternoon for the featherweight championship of America and the gold challenge belt offered by the Pacific Athletic Club. The boxers will enter the ring at about 3:15 o'clock. They will weigh in at the ringside. Attell is favorite at 10 to 7, but the betting so far has been light.
